

If cell phones were allowed to be used on the airplane everything would be in chaos. You know how there are those people who talk really loud while they're on their phone. Well how would you like to be stuck in an airplane all day with them. Please do not pass the usage of cell phones in the air.